Preface

On August 05, 2024, the government led by Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina was overthrown by a violent mob under the guise of the 'anti-discrimination student movement', unleashing an incomprehensible reign of terror on the streets of Dhaka and other cities. An 'Interim Government' led by Dr. Yunus was installed by the Apex Court of Bangladesh on August 8, 2024. From August 9, 2024, to October 9, 2025, 124 elected Members of Parliament (MPs), including 15 female MPs, were arrested without specific charges, often without warrants. Later, 8 MPs were granted bail for various reasons. Despite being eligible for bail under the existing laws of Bangladesh, the remaining 115 MPs have been repeatedly denied it, facing abuse and mental torture by police and judiciary, physical attacks in custody and the court premises by the mobs, and even by the lawyers supporting the Interim Government. Bail granted by the High Court Division was frequently stayed by the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, and detained MPs released on bail were 'shown-arrested' with new charges at the jail gates. One of the MPs who was a Heroic Freedom Fighter and a former minister died in prison for not getting proper medical attention and mental torture. The detained MPs are often remanded to police custody by the Judges without the presence of any defense lawyer. Defense lawyers were coerced by the supporters of the current regime not to attend the bail hearings of the MPs. Human rights organizations have called for the release of the MPs, but the Interim Government remains unyielding, seriously undermining the rule of law.

The current situation raises concerns about judicial neutrality and executive interference, potentially violating Article 9 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR), which protects against arbitrary arrest and detention. It states that "Everyone has the right to liberty and security of person. No one shall be subjected to arbitrary arrest or detention. No one shall be deprived of his liberty except on such grounds and in accordance with such procedure as are established by law…"

Any MP if committed any crime should be tried according to the existing laws of Bangladesh. But locking them up without trial in the over-crammed, squalid prisons indefinitely, allegedly on fabricated charges, is a travesty of justice, clearly manifesting an agenda of a meticulous plan to score a political vendetta. Immediate action is needed from the UN Human Rights Commission and International Organizations to protect the rights of detained MPs in Bangladesh and to hold the Interim Government of Dr. Yunus accountable for human rights violations.
