Government's Failure or a Calculated Provocation?

24 Hours of Turmoil:

Anarchy Following Hadi's Death

Government's Failure or a Calculated Provocation?

The first 24 hours following Hadi's death were marked by administrative paralysis, during which arson attacks and assaults targeted media outlets and journalists, foreign diplomatic missions, cultural institutions, historical sites, and the properties of opposition political leaders, raising urgent questions about the accountability and intent of the Interim Government of Bangladesh.

BACKGROUND

Sharif Osman Hadi was a son of a madrasa teacher from Nalchity Upazila of Jhalakathi district. Hadi passed his Alim examination from Jhalakathi NS Kamil Madrasa and later completed his undergraduate and postgraduate studies in Political Science from Dhaka University ^[i]. He taught at the private University of Scholars.

He was the spokesperson of 'Inqilab Mancha', an organisation formed after the Anti-Discrimination Student Movement-2024, and a candidate for Member of Parliament from Dhaka-8 constituency ^[ii]. On December 12, 2025, he was shot by miscreants in the Bijoynagar area of Dhaka and died on December 18, 2025, while undergoing treatment at Singapore General Hospital ^[iii]. He was buried in Dhaka on December 20, 2025, with state and military honours.

Osman Hadi, who was shot, is being taken to the hospital by colleagues.

Following his death, on December 18, 2025, Islamic extremist militant groups carried out widespread arson and destruction across the country, including Dhaka, in the presence of the administration ^[iv]. For the first time in the country's history, they vandalised, looted, and set fire to two leading national media outlets, and harassed journalists. In addition, foreign diplomatic establishments and cultural institutions were also extensively vandalised. 'Bangabandhu Bhaban' in Dhanmondi-32, a place steeped in the memories of Bangladesh's independence, was also vandalised again. The residences of various levels of Awami League leaders and activists were also vandalised across the country.

Although the government was aware of the preparations for these attacks for a long time, it did not take any measures to prevent them ^[v]. The government's controversial role in the attacks came into public discussion after the attacks ^[vi]. Especially since the attacks began immediately after the interim government head, Dr Muhammad Yunus, addressed the nation, there is speculation that the government had patronised or consented to these attacks ^[vii].

Although the law enforcement agencies or the government did not show much activity in arresting or identifying the culprits in the initial stages after Osman Hadi was shot, members of the family and acquaintances of one suspected individual have been arrested. Despite the lack of reliable evidence and the absence of an arrest of the alleged perpetrator, a final charge sheet has been filed against 17 people.

However, 'Inqilab Mancha' has rejected the final charge sheet in the murder case, alleging that the state machinery, i.e., the government, was involved in the murder of Sharif Osman Hadi ^[viii]. Earlier, two Bangladeshi political parties, the BNP and Jamaat-e-Islami, also exchanged accusations, each claiming the other was involved. On December 13, 2025, during a protest march, BNP Senior Joint Secretary General Ruhul Kabir Rizvi stated that the police had informed them that the attackers were involved with Jamaat-e-Islami and its student wing, Islami Chhatra Shibir ^[ix]. On the other hand, Jamaat-Shibir activists posted various suggestive statuses implying that Mirza Abbas, a standing committee member of BNP, was involved in the shooting of Hadi. Furthermore, when Mirza Abbas went to visit Hadi in the hospital, he was confronted by a group of people who attacked him and chanted slogans calling him a fraud. Mirza Abbas stated that those who attacked him were not Hadi's supporters. He hinted that they were supporters of a particular political party, referring to Jamaat-e-Islami ^[x]. A meeting was also held at the Chief Adviser's residence regarding the mutual accusations between the BNP and Jamaat-e-Islami ^[xi].

Essentially, these incidents have raised the question: was the violence following Hadi's murder a failure of the government or a planned provocation?

POST JULY-AUGUST 24

Although Sharif Osman was not on the front lines during the anti-discrimination student movement of 2024, Sharif Osman Hadi is known to have served as a coordinator in the Rampura area.

However, it has been confirmed that after the fall of the Awami League government on August 5, 2024, he led various attacks, vandalism, and arson. There is a video of him publicly inciting arson at a crowded rally using a microphone ^[xii].

Sharif Osman Hadi came into the spotlight through his demand to ban the Awami League and his continuous anti-India rhetoric, using vulgar and indecent language in his speeches. He occasionally used words in his speeches that are not publishable ^[xiii]. The banned militant organisations in Bangladesh also had substantial involvement in the demand to ban the Awami League ^[xiv], with which Osman Hadi is known to have coordinated.

Video of a speech in obscene, provocative, and inflammatory language.

Osman Hadi was one of the main instigators of the vandalism of 'Bangabandhu Bhaban' in Dhanmondi-32, a place steeped in the memories of Bangladesh's independence ^[xv]. Besides, Hadi played a leading role in the program to ban the Awami League ^[xvi].

Basically, since the post-movement period, Osman Hadi was involved in various unethical activities, including mob violence, extortion, vandalism, and looting across the country. He established a cultural platform called "Inqilab Mancha". There is information that in August 2024, Osman Hadi extorted money from various leading individuals and institutions in the country under the guise of flood relief [xvii]. Osman Hadi and his Inqilab platform have extorted money under the guise of organizing various programs. [xviii].

He publicly announced on a stage that it would cost 10 lakh taka to break sculptures [xix]. He also extorted money under the name of election campaigning. Videos of two separate individuals giving him money went viral on social media [xx]. After his death, inconsistencies were observed in the statements of one of the individuals who gave him money when questioned by a journalist, which clearly indicates his extortion activities [xxi].

Video of a statement made publicly about vandalizing sculptures in exchange for money.

In three recently viral videos of the person suspected of shooting him, more unmistakable evidence of his extortion, tender manipulation, and terrorist activities is found [xxii]. The accused person stated that he was not involved in Osman Hadi's murder. Basically, he met Osman Hadi while lobbying to get a tender for a government project. Osman Hadi demanded an advance payment of 5 lakh taka, promising to secure a tender for the work. In addition to this advance payment, he also took cash and t-shirts from the accused person under the pretext of various programs. In the video, he states that he is currently abroad for security reasons because he is suspected of being involved in the murder.

Behind the facade of the Inqilab Manch and politics, Sharif Osman Hadi was involved in various corrupt activities. Those associated with the Inqilab Manch are believed to be linked to extremist Islamic militant groups.

SHAHBAG GATHERING

Upon receiving the news of the death of Sharif Osman Hadi, the spokesperson for the Inqilab Manch, angry protesters gathered in Shahbag, Dhaka. The gathering in Shahbag grew steadily, creating an unstable situation. Although incitement to vandalism and attacks on various establishments emanated from the gathering, law enforcement remained silent and took no action. Besides Shahbag, protests also took place in various other locations across the country, including the Dhaka University Vice-Chancellor's premises.

At this gathering in Shahbag, the presence of members of various internationally banned militant groups among the general public was openly observed. Many of them had been released from jail after August 5, 2024 and were carrying out militant activities across the country under the banner of 'Tauhidi Janata'. Among them, the most notable was Mufti Jasim Uddin Rahmani, the head of the banned militant organisation 'Ansarullah Bangla Team'. He led the prayers at the gathering on December 19, 2025, demanding justice for Hadi's murder ^[xxiii]. Another prominent militant, Aatur Rahman Bikrampur, was also seen beside him ^[xxiv].

At Shahbag: Ansarullah Bangla Team chief Mufti Jasim Uddin Rahmani and member Aatur Rahman Bikrampur.

Essentially, the attacks and vandalism on Prothom Alo, The Daily Star, and cultural organisations were carried out under the direct supervision of these militants. It is clear from the statements of several attackers that they carried out these attacks because of Prothom Alo and The Daily Star's anti-militant stance in Bangladesh.

CHIEF ADVISOR'S ADDRESS TO THE NATION

Following the death of Sharif Osman Hadi, spokesperson of the Inqilab platform, Chief Advisor Professor Dr Muhammad Yunus addressed the nation after 11:15 PM on December 18, 2025. A national day of mourning was declared on December 20, 2025, due to Hadi's death.

Chief Adviser's address to the nation.

Although a gathering took place in Shahbagh, no incidents of violence or vandalism occurred before the Chief Advisor's address. Immediately after his speech, the country's leading media outlet, Prothom Alo, was attacked. This was followed by attacks on the English national daily, The Daily Star, attacks on journalists, an attack on 'Bangabandhu Bhaban' in Dhanmondi-32, an attack on the residence of the Indian Assistant High Commissioner in Chittagong, an attack on the cultural institution Chhayanaut, and numerous incidents of vandalism and arson at various institutions and the homes of Awami League leaders and activists across the country.

The law enforcement agencies were not seen to be active in preventing these attacks. Leaders of various political parties criticised the government for failing to prevent these attacks [xxv]. Some also questioned why the attacks began immediately after the Chief Advisor's speech.

THE PROTHOM ALO OFFICE ATTACKED, SET ABLAZE

Sharif Osman Hadi has made several statements against Prothom Alo, calling it an Indian proxy newspaper. He has also made official Facebook posts criticising Prothom Alo [xxvi]. Earlier, there were allegations of his and his organisation, Inqilab Mancha's involvement in leading the attack on the Prothom Alo office.

Prothom Alo's head office set on fire.

After the chief advisor's speech, a group of extremists attacked the Prothom Alo office in the presence of the army and other law enforcement agencies. After extensive vandalism and looting, they set fire to the interior of his Prothom Alo office. These attacks clearly indicate the militant group's involvement. They burned down the entire office. Outside Dhaka, Prothom Alo's district office was also attacked and vandalised, and several district offices were attacked ^[xxvii]. On the same day, the Prothom Alo office in Rajshahi was attacked, with its signboards vandalised, and its Bogra office was attacked at night. In addition, protests were held at Chittagong, Sylhet, Barisal, Chandpur, Munshiganj and Jahangirnagar universities and Prothom Alo activists were threatened and harassed ^[xxviii].

Militant Aatur Rahman Bikrampur has been arrested in connection with the attack on Prothom Alo. He led the attack on Prothom Alo and even led the forcible release of the detainees by creating a mob at the police station when some people were arrested in connection with the attack ^[xxix].

THE DAILY STAR OFFICE ATTACKED, SET ABLAZE

The Daily Star office was also vandalised and set on fire immediately after the attack on the Prothom Alo office. At around 12 am on December 18, a group of 100 to 200 people broke through the main gate and entered the building's ground floor. They vandalised the furniture, the gallery, and the glass doors. At one stage, a pile of furniture and newspapers on the ground floor was set on fire. The fire spread to the third floor of the building [xxx].

As a result of the arson, 28 journalists including two female journalists were trapped inside the building. The attackers prevented the fire service and the army from rescuing them.

Video of the army arguing with the mob over asking for time.

Instead of preventing the attack, the army asked the extremists for 20 minutes to rescue the trapped people [xxxix]. After the rescue of the trapped people was completed, the attackers started vandalising again. The army did not even try to resist them. Such actions by the military have been widely criticised for the fragile state of the security system across the country.

The attackers climbed from the first to the sixth floor of the building and vandalised. During this time, various electronic equipment, including computers and cameras, was looted [xxxix]. As of December 23, 2025, 28 people had been arrested in connection with the attacks on Prothom Alo and the Daily Star [xl].

After the attacks, Daily Star editor Mahfuz Anam raised serious allegations at a protest meeting held on December 22, 2025, condemning the attacks, the arson at the Daily Star and Prothom Alo offices, and the harassment of the editors' council president, New Age editor Nurul Kabir. Mahfuz Anam said that posts have been seen on social media suggesting that journalists of the Daily Star and Prothom Alo should be killed. Regarding freedom of expression, he added, "'We have entered into an era of murder', expression of opinion has come a long way, now it is a matter of the right to live [xli]."

NEW AGE EDITOR NURUL KABIR ATTACKED

Nurul Kabir, the president of the Editors' Council and editor of the English daily 'New Age', was attacked by extremists in front of the Prothom Alo office on the night of December 18, 2025. The attackers assaulted him ^[xxxv].

Video of the attack on New Age editor Nurul Kabir.

In a speech at the 6th Broadcasting Conference of the Broadcast Journalists Center (BJC) on December 27, 2025, he alleged, "The attack and arson at Prothom Alo, The Daily Star, and Chhayanaut building were planned and carried out with the support of some part of the government ^[xxxvi]."

WOMEN JOURNALISTS

Among those trapped in The Daily Star building during the attack and arson were two female journalists. To escape the fire, they took refuge on the roof. However, due to the heavy smoke, they were in a life-threatening situation ^[xxxvii].

When one of them tried to descend using the fire escape ladder to escape the smoke, she fell into the hands of the mob and was beaten ^[xxxviii]. After that, no one dared to come down out of fear, until the army arrived and, after requesting 20 minutes from the attackers, rescued the trapped journalists.

However, even after being rescued, the two female journalists of The Daily Star were subjected to harassment in the presence of law enforcement ^[xxxix].

BANGABANDHU BHABAN VANDALISM AND ARSON

After the news spread of the death of Sharif Osman Hadi, the spokesperson of the Inqilab Manch, vandalism resumed at Dhanmondi Road 32. Around 12:40 AM on the night of December 18, 2025, a group of extremist miscreants attacked 'Bangabandhu Bhaban', a building steeped in the memories of Bangladesh's independence ^[xli].

Following Hadi's death, 'Bangabandhu Bhaban' was once again vandalized and set on fire.

The vandalism was carried out again with bulldozers. The building was vandalised throughout the day on December 19, 2025. During the vandalism, the extremists chanted slogans such as "Nara-e-Takbir, Allahu Akbar," and "Inqilab Zindabad ^[xlii]."

There was no attempt by the government or law enforcement to prevent the attack on 'Bangabandhu Bhaban'.

CHHAYANAUT VANDALISM AND ARSON

On December 18, 2025, around 1 AM, after the death of Hadi, a group of extremists, under the name of 'Tauhidi Janata' (Islamic Unity), attacked Chhayanut, a traditional cultural institution of Bangladesh ^[xliii]. They vandalised various floors of Chhayanut's seven-story building ^[xliii].

The attackers also set fire to Chhayanut's musical instruments and furniture. Although the attackers' images were captured in video footage, no arrests were made, even after a case was filed, and the government did not take any appropriate action.

UDICHI VANDALISM AND ARSON

The central office of Udichi, one of Bangladesh's leading cultural organisations, also experienced vandalism, looting, and arson ^[xlv]. The attack on the Udichi building took place on December 19, 2025, around 8 PM. Amit Ranjan Dey, the general secretary of a faction of Udichi, claimed that the fire was deliberately set ^[xlv].

57 years of Udichi's documents, musical instruments, and furniture reduced to ashes.

Amit Ranjan Dey alleged that direct threats of attack were made against Udichi and that provocative posts were shared on social media. However, despite knowing everything, the interim government or administration did not take any measures to ensure Udichi's security ^[xlv].

As a result of the arson, the organisation's 57 years of important documents, musical instruments, and furniture were burned ^[xlvii].

ATTACK ON THE INDIAN ASSISTANT HIGH COMMISSIONER'S RESIDENCE IN CHITTAGONG

On December 18, 2025, at 1:15 AM, extremists attacked the residence of the Indian Assistant High Commissioner in Chittagong ^[xlviii]. They started throwing bricks and stones at the High Commission office in the presence of the police .

Extremists hurl bricks and stones at the Indian Assistant High Commissioner's residence in Chittagong.

Before the attack, around 11 PM, several hundred extremists gathered in front of the High Commission and chanted various anti-India slogans ^[xlix]. The law enforcement agencies did not play any effective role at that time. However, after the attack, 12 people were detained for questioning.

ATTEMPTED ATTACK ON THE INDIAN ASSISTANT HIGH COMMISSIONER'S RESIDENCE IN KHULNA

Alleging that the person accused of the attack on Sharif Osman Hadi had fled to India, a group of miscreants held a 'March to the Indian Assistant High Commission' program and demonstration in Khulna on the afternoon of December 18, 2025. The activists of the Anti-Hegemony Alliance started a procession with banners and slogans from Royal More in Khulna city at 3:30 PM. The procession advanced towards the residence and office of the Assistant Indian High Commissioner via Mirzapur and Shamsur Rahman Road ^[l].

News related to the march to the Indian High Commission.

The joint forces attempted to stop the protesters by setting up barricades. However, the protesters broke through the barricades and moved forward ^[ii]. When they tried to advance further, law enforcement agencies, including the police, RAB, and the army, brought the situation under control.

MARCH TOWARDS THE INDIAN ASSISTANT HIGH COMMISSION IN RAJSHAHI

A group of protesters marched towards the office of the Indian Assistant High Commission in Rajshahi. The protesters, under the name of the July 36 Platform, attempted to break through police barricades. A scuffle ensued with the police. During this time, they chanted various anti-India slogans ^[iii].

LONG MARCH TO THE INDIAN BORDER

In protest of the death of Sharif Osman Hadi, slogans against India were chanted in various parts of the country. In addition to an attack on the Assistant High Commissioner's residence in Chittagong, attempts were also made to attack other High Commissions, including the one in Rajshahi.

The gathering of the Long March to the Indian Border.

On December 19, 2025, activists of the National Citizen Party (NCP) held a "Long March to the Border" program in Benapole, Jessore ^[liii]. There, too, they chanted various anti-India slogans ^[liv].

ARSON AT THE RESIDENCE OF THE DIRECTOR GENERAL OF BANGLADESH TELEVISION

On the night of December 18, 2025, miscreants deliberately set fire to the house of the Director General of Bangladesh Television (DG) Mahbubul Alam in Magura. They poured petrol and set the house on fire ^[lv].

ARSON AT THE VILLAGE HOME OF INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL TRIBUNAL PROSECUTOR ZOHA

On the night of December 18, 2025, the house of International Criminal Tribunal prosecutor Tanvir Hasan Zoha in Magura was set on fire after petrol. The incident, which occurred in front of a sensitive area such as a judge's court, raised questions about security arrangements ^[vi].

EXTREMISTS AT MEETINGS

Essentially, members of Islamic extremist militant groups were seen openly leading the vandalism and terrorist activities centred around the death of Sharif Osman Hadi. Immediately after the news of Hadi's death, the head of the banned militant organisation Ansarullah Bangla Team, along with his followers, was seen at a gathering in Shahbagh. They chanted various extremist slogans. They also chanted slogans calling for the destruction of newspapers like The Daily Prothom Alo and The Daily Star, as well as different cultural institutions.

Mufti Jasim Uddin Rahmani, the head of Ansarullah Bangla Team, was released on bail.

After the fall of the Awami League government on August 5, 2024, more than 300 people accused in various militancy cases were released on bail from prisons across the country. Among them was Mufti Jasim Uddin Rahmani, the head of the internationally banned militant organisation Ansarullah Bangla Team ^[lvii]. He was seen openly leading the movement protesting Hadi's death in Shahbagh. He even led prayers there ^[lviii].

Ataur Rahman Bikrampur, an extremist militant, was seen with Mufti Jasim ^[lix]. In 2021, Ataur Rahman Bikrampur was arrested as a member of Ansarullah Bangla Team. Since August 5, 2024, he has again been seen participating in extremist activities in public. He had previously led an attempt to attack the Prothom Alo newspaper office ^[lx].

12 ATTACKERS RELEASED IN CHITTAGONG

Chittagong police arrested 12 people in connection with the attack on the residence of the Indian Assistant High Commissioner in Chittagong. Mufti Harun Izhar came to the police station to secure the release of those arrested in this incident ^[lxi].

Mufti Harun Izhar is a close associate of the banned militant organisation Harkat-ul-Jihad (HuJI). He also has links with the Pakistan-based militant organisation Lashkar-e-Taiba ^[lxii]. His son, Harun bin Izhar, is also associated with the Pakistan-based militant organisation Lashkar-e-Taiba.

It is known that members of militant organisations attacked the Indian embassy.

VANDALISM & ARSON OF AWAMI LEAGUE LEADERS' PROPERTIES

On the night of December 18, 2025, along with other institutions, houses and offices of Awami League leaders and activists were again vandalised and set on fire in various parts of Bangladesh. Some notable incidents include:

VANDALISM AND ARSON AT THE HOUSE OF FORMER EDUCATION MINISTER MOHIBUL HASAN CHOWDHURY NOWFEL

After the news of the death of Sharif Osman Hadi, spokesperson of the Inqilab Manch, on December 18, 2025, after 11 PM, a group of youths under the banner of 'students and the public' marched from the Gate No. 2 area. They again attacked the Chashma Hill residence of former Education Minister of the Awami League government, Mohibul Hasan Chowdhury Nowfel, after the incident of August 5, 2024.

Vandalism and arson at the residence of former Education Minister Nowfel in Chittagong.

The attackers first set fire to a motorcycle in front of the building. Then they entered the house and carried out extensive vandalism and arson ^[xiii].

VANDALISM AND ARSON AT THE HOUSE OF FORMER STATE MINISTER FOR SHIPPING KHALID MAHMUD CHOWDHURY

On the night of December 19, 2025, the house of former State Minister for Shipping Khalid Mahmud Chowdhury, who has been a Member of Parliament for three consecutive terms from Dinajpur-2 (Bochaganj-Birganj) constituency and the organising secretary of the Awami League, was vandalised, looted, and set on fire

Vandalism and arson at the residence of former State Minister Khalid Mahmud in Dinajpur.

Police and local sources said that yesterday evening, a group of more than 100 people on motorcycles headed towards the minister's house while chanting slogans. They were wearing helmets. They had sticks and local weapons in their hands. At one point, they set fire to a pile of paddy straw in front of Khalid Mahmud Chowdhury's house. Later, the entire house was gutted by that fire [lxv].

ARSON AT THE HOUSE OF FORMER MINISTER BIR BAHADUR USHWE SING

On the night of December 18, 2025, at around 12:55 AM, the residence of former Minister of the Ministry of Chittagong Hill Tracts Affairs, Bir Bahadur Ushwe Sing, was set on fire. Following the news of the death of Sharif Osman Bin Hadi, 20-25 young men took out a protest march in the traffic intersection area of Bandarban town at around 12 AM.

Arson at the house of former minister Bir Bahadur Ushwe Sing.

Later, they proceeded to the Raja's Field area, chanting slogans, and set fire to the former minister's residence. The fire spread rapidly throughout the building ^[lxvi]. Although the fire service arrived at the scene, they were unable to begin extinguishing the fire due to repeated obstruction from the attacking miscreants. A police constable named Rajib was seriously injured during this time ^[lxvii].

ARSON AT THE HOUSE OF FORMER MP HABIB HASAN OF UTTARA

On the night of December 18, 2025, extremist militant groups again set fire to the house of Mohammad Habib Hasan, the former MP of Dhaka-18 (Uttara) constituency ^[lxviii]. Even after the fall of the Awami League government on August 5, 2024, incidents of vandalism, looting, and arson had occurred at the house.

A devastating fire broke out at the house of former MP Habib Hasan.

ARSON AT THE HOUSE OF BARRISTER ANISUL ISLAM MAHMUD

Extremists set fire to the ancestral home of former Foreign Minister and Chairman of a faction of Jatiya Party (JP), and head of the National Democratic Front (NDF), an electoral and political alliance of 18 political parties, and former minister Barrister Anisul Islam Mahmud ^[lxix].

The ancestral home of former minister Barrister Anisul Islam Mahmud was set on fire and vandalized.

On the night of December 19, 2025, at around 12 AM, armed and masked men attacked and set fire to Anisul Islam's ancestral home ^[lxx]. 50 to 60 people arrived in private cars and microbuses and entered Anisul Islam's house. The attackers began vandalising the house of Anisul Islam Mahmud. They ransacked the furniture. At one point, they set it on fire. A private car parked in front of the house was also burned.

ATTACK ON THE HOUSE OF FORMER SETABGANJ MUNICIPALITY MAYOR ABDUS SABUR

On the night of December 19, 2025, the same group of miscreants also attacked the house of another former mayor of Setabganj Municipality in Dinajpur district, Abdus Sabur. They vandalised, looted, and set fire to Abdus Sabur's house using sticks and local weapons ^[lxxii].

ATTACK ON THE HOUSE OF FORMER SETABGANJ MUNICIPALITY MAYOR ASLAM UDDIN

On the night of December 19, 2025, at around 8 PM, the house of Aslam Uddin, the former mayor of Setabganj Municipality in Dinajpur district, was attacked. The miscreants, arriving on over a hundred motorcycles, attacked while chanting slogans and wielding sticks and local weapons. They vandalised, looted, and then set fire to the former mayor's house ^[lxxi].

The house of Aslam, the former mayor of Setabganj Municipality, was reduced to rubble by arson.

VANDALISM AND ARSON AT THE HOUSE AND OFFICE OF AN AWAMI LEAGUE LEADER IN KUSHTIA

On December 18, 2025, extremists unleashed violence in Kushtia. They vandalised the house and office of Kanak Kanti Das, joint general secretary of the Kushtia District Awami League, and set fire to the furniture. They also set fire to the business establishment of Mizanur Rahman Masum, vice-president of the Sadar Municipal Awami League.

At the same time, the house of former Member of Parliament Naser Shahriar Zahedi Mohul was also attacked. The house of Kushtia Municipal Panel Mayor Shahin Uddin in Jugia was also set on fire. Attacks were also carried out on the houses of Jubo League leader Babul Hossain in Amlapara, Kushtia, Manab Chaki, general secretary of the District Volunteer League, and a person named Chunnu in Peyaratala ^[lxxiii].

VANDALISM OF AWAMI LEAGUE LEADER'S HOUSE AND BUSINESS ESTABLISHMENT IN JHENAIDAH

An incident of vandalism and arson at a house and business establishment in Jhenaidah town, and stone-pelting at several houses, has occurred. On Thursday night, December 18, 2025, extremist miscreants vandalised and attempted to set fire to the homes and shops of four district Awami League leaders. They also attacked a business establishment owned by a district Jubo League leader ^[lxxiv].

VANDALISM OF AWAMI LEAGUE LEADER'S OFFICE AND ESTABLISHMENT IN FENI

On December 18, 2025, miscreants attacked the office of Advocate Shahjahan Saju, law affairs secretary of the Feni District Awami League ^[lxxv].

Vandalism of Awami League Leader's office in Feni.

ATTACK ON THE HOUSE AND NEWSPAPER OFFICE OF AWAMI LEAGUE LEADER AND LONDON-BASED HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVIST SUSHANTA DAS

On December 19, 2025, the house of London-based Awami League leader Sushanta Das and his newspaper office, 'Dainik Amar Habiganj', in Habiganj were vandalised and looted ^[lxxvi].

The office of the newspaper 'Amar Habiganj', owned by human rights activist Sushanta Das, was vandalized.

His home was attacked after an announcement was made over a loudspeaker. Sushanta claims that his house and business establishment were attacked because he is Hindu ^[lxxvii].

AWAMI LEAGUE OFFICE IN RAJSHAHI DEMOLISHED WITH A BULLDOZER

On the night of December 18, 2025, the Metropolitan Awami League office located in Kumarpura, Rajshahi city, was completely demolished with a bulldozer ^[lxxviii].

The Awami League office in Rajshahi was demolished with a bulldozer.

A procession was brought out from Rajshahi University around 11 PM to protest the killing of Hadi. The parade marched through various roads of the campus and then gathered at Saheb Bazar Zero Point in the city. During this time, they chanted various anti-Awami League and anti-India slogans.

At the same time, activists of the NCP and the July 36 platform started a protest at Saheb Bazar Zero Point in Rajshahi. Later, the Rajshahi City Awami League office was vandalised with a bulldozer ^[lxxix].

At this time, Raksu GS Salahuddin Ammar said that the Awami League will not be allowed to have any presence in Rajshahi ^[lxxx]. Rajshahi University Chhatra Shibir secretary Mujahid Faisal said that Hadi's killers must be brought to justice without delay and their death sentences must be carried out. Otherwise, there will be no diplomatic relations with India, and all Indian High Commissions will be closed. Cultural fascists like The Prothom Alo and The Daily Star must be overthrown. We will besiege the Indian High Commission on Friday ^[lxxxi].

VANDALISM AT HABIGANJ DISTRICT AWAMI LEAGUE OFFICE

Students and the public protested in Habiganj, demanding justice for the murder of Sharif Osman bin Hadi. On Friday, they carried out a blockade program and a protest march in Habiganj town, attacking and vandalising the Awami League office ^[lxxxii]. The office was extensively vandalised, and a mural of Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman was set on fire ^[lxxxiii].

VANDALISM AT AWAMI LEAGUE OFFICE IN SAGHATTA, GAIBANDHA

Following the death of Sharif Osman bin Hadi, extremists also carried out vandalism in Saghatta Upazila of Gaibandha. On Friday (December 19), they vandalised the office of the Saghatta Upazila Awami League in Ullabazar ^[lxxxiv]. Furniture, banners, and other office materials were damaged in the incident.

ROLE OF LAW ENFORCEMENT AUTHORITIES

Following Sharif Osman Hadi's death and the deterioration of the law and order situation, the role of the government and law enforcement agencies has come under serious question. Salahuddin Ahmed, a member of the Standing Committee of the Bangladesh Nationalist Party (BNP), alleged that the current interim government is fostering mob rule [xxxv]. He claimed that the government's role in the attacks on two media outlets, despite having intelligence information, is questionable.

News report on the statement of BNP Standing Committee member Salahuddin Ahmed.

After the news of Hadi's death, a group of extremists gathered at Shahbagh. It delivered provocative speeches and slogans that incited attacks on the offices of The Prothom Alo and The Daily Star, as well as on cultural institutions. After a considerable time had passed since these slogans were chanted and after the Chief Adviser's address to the nation, vandalism began with an attack on the Prothom Alo office, which then spread across the country. Leaders of a banned militant organisation led the attack on The Prothom Alo in the presence of the army and police. During this time, law enforcement officers did not attempt to prevent the attack. The same scenario was observed during the attack on The Daily Star. As a result, many believe that the government instigated this chaotic situation.

The army's negotiations with the attackers of The Daily Star to rescue those trapped inside the building sparked nationwide criticism. Instead of confronting the unruly extremist crowd, the army requested 20 minutes to rescue those trapped inside. Alarming, even after the trapped individuals were rescued, extremists harassed two female journalists from the Daily Star in the presence of law enforcement. Immediately after the rescue, the attackers again vandalised and openly looted property.

Meanwhile, in Chittagong, extremists attacked the residence of the Indian Assistant High Commissioner in the presence of the police. An attack on a country's diplomatic establishment is an ominous sign for a nation's security. Although 12 people were arrested after the attack, it was observed that the notorious Mufti Harun Izhar, who had previously been arrested on charges of militant involvement, went to the police station with his followers to secure their release.

Following the funeral of Sharif Osman Hadi, a group of extremists attempted to enter the parliament building forcibly. Although law enforcement agencies, including the army, tried to stop them, they attempted to breach security barriers and enter the building. Earlier, on August 5, 2024, the parliament building was also subjected to extensive vandalism and looting ^[lxxxvii].

After Hadi's funeral, extremists attempted to enter the parliament by breaking through the barricades.

Furthermore, these extremists, under various banners including 'Tauhidi Janata,' also attacked cultural institutions. Consequently, the attacks carried out following Hadi's death are suspected to be planned militant attacks.

Mufti Jasim Uddin Rahmani, the head of the banned militant organisation Ansarullah Bangla Team, openly led a rally organised to protest Hadi's death and even led the prayers there. Just a few days later, on December 29, 2025, a powerful explosion occurred in presense of Mufti Jasim Uddin Rahmani, in front of an under-construction building in the Baraikhali area of Hazaribagh police station in Dhaka [lxxxvii].

Earlier, on December 26, a massive explosion occurred at a madrasa in Keraniganj, Dhaka, while bombs were being manufactured, from which a large quantity of bomb-making equipment and materials for making suicide vests were recovered [lxxxviii]. As a result, it can be inferred that militant activity in the country has increased significantly. These militants have started to come out into the open after Hadi's death.

News regarding the bomb blast near Mufti Jasim Uddin Rahmani.

Members of this militant group have also been involved in Hadi's various activities, including the movement to ban the Awami League.

THE TRIAL AND THE FARCICAL PROCEEDINGS IN THE OSMAN HADI MURDER CASE

No activity from law enforcement agencies was observed in the first 24 hours after Sharif Osman Hadi was shot on December 12, 2025. The motorcyclist and the shooter, who was riding pillion, shot Osman Hadi in the head and fled. A few hours later, a worker associated with Osman Hadi's election campaign was accused on social media of being the shooter.

In connection with this incident, the police arrested a man named Md. Abdul Hannan from Chapainawabganj on December 13, 2025, claiming he owned the motorcycle, and took him into custody for three days [bxxxix]. Later, it was revealed that the bike used in the attack did not belong to him [xc]. Furthermore, the motorcycle used in the attack had a fake number plate with English lettering. However, it is known that the Bangladesh Road Transport Authority does not issue number plates with English lettering. Hannan was later granted bail on December 17, 2025. However, it is alleged that after his arrest, the police did not listen to him, tried to prove him guilty, and attempted to extract a confession forcibly.

An innocent person was granted bail after being held on remand due to suspicion.

Without any evidence, on December 14, 2025, RAB arrested the wife, brother-in-law, and alleged girlfriend of the accused Faisal Karim Masud, whose name had gone viral on social media [xci]. After their arrest, the police took them into custody for two consecutive remand periods [xcii]. RAB also arrested the accused's parents on December 17 [xciii].

Expatriate journalist Zulqarnain Saer claimed that the accused, whom he identified as a leader of the Bangladesh Chhatra League, had fled to India. He claimed that the accused, along with the motorcycle driver, had fled to India on December 12, 2025 [xciv].

Faisal Karim Masud, the suspected murderer of Sharif Osman Hadi, was arrested by RAB (Rapid Action Battalion) on November 8, 2024, with a weapon. Following his arrest on February 16, 2025, a bench comprising Justices Mohammad Ali and SK Tahsin Ali granted him bail for six months. His lawyers at the time were BNP-affiliated lawyers Advocate Kaiser Kamal and Advocate Mahfuzur Rahman. Subsequently, on August 12, 2025, an application to extend his bail was filed, and a bench of Justice Mohammad Ali and Justice Yusuf Abdullah Sumon granted him a further one-year bail. As a result, Faisal Karim Masud received bail for six months initially and then for another year after his arrest in the arms case [xcv].

Hadi murder accused, arrested with weapons, quickly secures bail.

Although the police did not find any proper evidence and were unable to arrest the accused Faisal Karim Masud, whose name had gone viral on social media, they accused him of being the murderer.

Meanwhile, on December 31, 2025, the accused Faisal Karim Masud released a video message on social media. He claimed that he was not involved in the incident and that his family was being falsely implicated. In the video, he stated that he was in Dubai [xcvi]. In another video, he claimed that he had come to Dubai for security reasons after being accused and having the allegations against him go viral on social media. He said that the person who contacted Sharif Osman Hadi helped him leave the country.

Faisal Karim Masud's video message claiming his innocence.

Information from his video suggests that Sharif Osman Hadi was involved in tender manipulation and extortion. The accused, Faisal, stated in his video that he met Osman Hadi while lobbying to secure a tender for his IT company. It is alleged that Osman Hadi took 5 lakh taka in cash from the accused Faisal, promising to help him secure the tender. It is also alleged that he took money and t-shirts from him for various programs. Faisal Karim said that after meeting Osman Hadi, Hadi demanded money from him several times, and he gave it to him, hoping to get the work.

Furthermore, Osman Hadi had taken crowdfunding assistance multiple times for fundraising. Separate videos of him receiving money have also gone viral on social media, and regarding one of these videos, which went viral after his death, a person, in response to journalists' questions, said that he was supposed to meet Osman Hadi the next day. Since he met him the day before, he gave him all the money he had [c]. He said they were supposed to meet again later. Although he did not directly accuse, his words suggest that Osman Hadi had asked him for a specific amount of money.

Video of money being put into Hadi's pocket.

On January 6, 2026, the Dhaka Metropolitan Detective Police (DB) filed a charge sheet against 17 people, including Faisal Karim Masud's father, mother, wife, brother-in-law, and girlfriend, as well as 11 other suspected individuals [xcvii].

হাদির খুনের পেছনে 'রাষ্ট্রযন্ত্র' জড়িত, চার্জশিট মানি না: ইনকিলাব মঞ্চ

শরিফ ওসমান হাদির হত্যাকাণ্ডের পেছনে রাষ্ট্রযন্ত্র জড়িত রয়েছে বলে অভিযোগ করেছে ইনকিলাব মঞ্চ। হত্যাকাণ্ডে জড়িতদের বিচারের মুখোমুখি না করা পর্যন্ত আন্দোলন চালিয়ে যাওয়ার ঘোষণা দিয়েছে প্র্যাটফর্মটি। একই সঙ্গে ওসমান হাদির হত্যাকাণ্ডে ১৭ জনের বিরুদ্ধে মহানগর গোয়েন্দা পুলিশ (ডিবি) যে চার্জশিট দিয়েছে, তা মানেন না বলেও জানিয়েছে ইনকিলাব মঞ্চ।

News reports regarding allegations of 'state machinery' involvement in Hadi's murder.

Rejecting the charge sheet filed by the police, the Inqilab Mancha, founded by Sharif Osman Hadi, claimed that the 'state machinery' was involved in Hadi's murder [xcviii]. Abdullah Al Jaber, the organisation's member secretary, said, "A ward commissioner allegedly ordered Hadi's shooting. Faisal Karim Masud was murdered on his orders. Even a madman wouldn't believe this story. A whole syndicate is active behind this murder. There is a state shadow; the state machinery is involved. Yet their names are not in the charge sheet. We do not accept a charge sheet that does not include the main syndicate [xcix]."
